Round Robin

MR. MULHOLLAND'S UPDATE

It's been another big week at Mildmay - probably not really worth me repeating that each week; they all are! On Wednesday we learned through assembly why we stop, remember and reflect for Remembrance Day - and, of course, at 11am, the whole school observed the 2 minute silence.

This week, the Forest School team took delivery of a fantastic Water Activity Wall to add to their outdoor learning activities classroom. It was an immediate hit. The team want to say a huge THANK YOU to FOMPs for funding this great addition to the Forest School space.

Fledglings Nursery have contacted me to request that I ask Mildmay Parents not to park in their designated spaces for pick up and drop off. Please do your best to park courteously in the area.

And finally, It was great to see an array of eye-patches and Pudsey ears for Children in Need today. It shows 'We Care' when we take time to think of those less fortunate than ourselves.

Have a great weekend everyone!

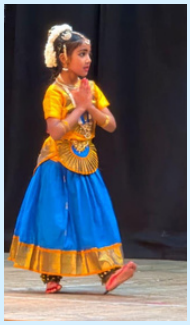
MILDMAY COMMUNITY NEWS

Emmie has decided to run 100km before the end of the year. Having started her challenge mid October, she has already run 28km. She is raising money for The Bone Cancer Research Trust. You can donate via the justgiving link on our Parents' Facebook page.

Rowan is undertaking a different running challenge. He's crossing the country for cross-country to raise money for continuing sporting opportunities at school. He also has a justgiving link that can be accessed from the same Facebook page.

Last weekend, Madhaani did her first ever dance performance. She has been learning Classical South Indian dancing which is very intricate. Dancing in a public performance like this is an amazing achievement.



And last, but not least, don't forget Phoenix is hosting a charity bake sale on 24th November in aid of the Starlight Children's Foundation. Pennies at the ready for delicious treats and a good cause.

SPORTING SUCCESS

Our Year 6 Cross-Country league teams were out again on Thurdsay in rather cold conditions.

We can celebrate a fabulous 2nd placed finish for Coco, lots of improved placing for everyone else and a whole lot of heart and effort.

Well done everyone, you're making us proud! You're a fantastic team.
