MR. MULHOLLAND'S UPDATE

Lots more has happened at Mildmay this week, not least the amazing 'Crazy Hair Day' today. Thank you for the kind donations to FOMPS and well done on your creativity; there were some wild designs and complex structures.

On Wednesday, our new Lions and Lionesses football teams went out to take part in their first football tournament this season. Mrs Smith was so proud of their teamwork and commitment. I'm told there were some magnificent goalkeeping performances in particular.

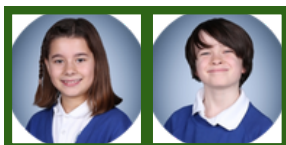

Next, a plea from staff for parents to label EVERYTHING! Too many items are being left behind and can't be returned to their owners. We're working on the children to take personal responsibility for their belongings, but if you can clearly name ALL their stuff, it is really helpful when it does go astray.

And finally...as well as voting for this year's House Captains (see below) each class has elected their school councillor. Congratulations to all who won the role, you'll be hearing from Mrs Aspinall very soon. Badges were issued in assembly today.

HOUSE CAPTAINS

This week saw the whole school take part in the election of our House Captains for 2026-27. We had more candidates than ever before and the standard of their speeches and presentations was INCREDIBLE! Well done to everyone who put themselves forward.

The House Captains and Vice House captains this year are: Almira & Coco, Zoe & Toby, Georgie & Manha. CONGRATULATIONS!

Amongst many other things this week, we spent some time exploring mark-making. This looks suspiciously like playing with shaving foam to most!.

FINALIST

A young boy with a big heart

GEORGE BOWRING

COURAGE | KINDNESS | INSPIRATION

George was 10 years old when his dad, completely out of the blue and very suddenly, was diagnosed with brain cancer.

This came in George's final year of primary school, with the pressures of sitting his SATs exams as well as an upcoming sports assessment for the school of his choice, which took place the day after his dad's surgery.

That would be enough for anyone to deal with, but George came home from school on the Friday before October half term and announced he wanted to raise money for charity to support the people helping his dad — and that he would like to climb a mountain.

On the Saturday the hotel was booked, on the Sunday evening the JustGiving page was set up, and by the Thursday the challenge was complete — in very adverse conditions!

In the short time before the challenge, George's fundraising hit £5,000, smashing his £200 target, and shortly after reached almost £7,000.

That is a testament to the wonderful boy that he is, always thinking of others even in difficult times. And on top of all of this, George gained his place at his secondary school of choice under their sports scheme — where only 25 children were guaranteed a place!

Brave enough to take on a mountain

Big enough to think of others

An inspiration to us all
